

Well known for its large selection, B&H can satisfy virtually every technology need for your institution.

With everything from popular products to obscure accessories, B&H is a world-class source for technology products.

Pricing, Selection, Stock and Service are the Four Pillars of B&H.

B&H's contract pricing represents the best value to E&I members for their technology purchases. It's unrivaled in-stock ability means most items are ready to ship for quick delivery. Additionally, many e-procurement options are available to simplify your purchasing needs, including customized punch-out and check-out portals.

Additional Highlights:

- Competitively solicited E&I contract
- Dedicated E&I Account Team for order processing, customer service and unique requests
- Technical advice, planning and solutions from experienced professionals
- State-of-the-art warehouses, efficient order processing and real-time tracking, ensuring quick delivery to multiple campus locations
- Same-day shipment for select items
- E-procurement options including JAGGAER
- Various payment options, including credit cards, p-cards and purchase orders

B&H offers complete lines of photo, video, audio, lighting, pro accessories, computers, data storage, optics, entertainment, projection & surveillance devices and much more!
