Energy Savings for Your Bottom Line

Looking to save 10-30% on your gas and electric bills? Bottom Line Concepts is a contingency-based consulting firm focused on helping educational institutions reduce the cost of utilities.

Bottom Line Concepts provides independent audits and in-depth analyses of utilities usage reports and invoices. The firm's extensive knowledge and optimization strategies deliver a holistic perspective on a broad range of areas where significant savings can be realized.

How does it work? E&I members incur no risk or upfront cost or obligation. Bottom Line performs this analysis and will only be paid via a percentage of recovered funds when savings are identified and refunded.

Contract Highlights:

- No risk, cost, or obligation for the consultation
- Savings on utilities up to 30%
- Applicable in regulated and deregulated states
- Savings can be uncovered by supplying just one month of invoices
- The process is easy and can be performed remotely
