

CONSOLIDUS

BRANDED MERCHANDISE, SIMPLIFIED.

Solutions and Savings for Higher Education & K12

Branded merchandise is often one of the most decentralized spend areas in education - yet it directly impacts your budget, compliance, and brand integrity.

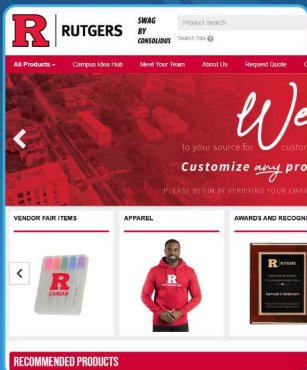

This rogue spend is expensive. It also creates reporting gaps, time-consuming manual workflows, and invites brand misuse within the community. There is a better way.

Introducing Consolidus

Consolidus makes it easy for educational procurement leaders to consolidate purchasing and workflows into a single system. This delivers the higher level of visibility, consistency and control you deserve, while delighting end buyers across your organization.

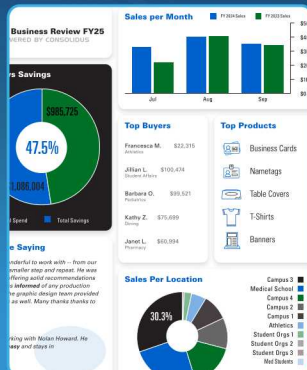

END BUYERS

End buyers get a curated website with quality products and ideas for their next event or initiative.

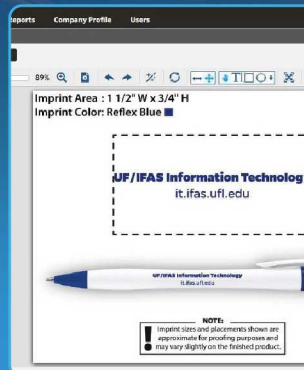

PROCUREMENT

Procurement offices get insights and significant savings that come from an integrated, holistic solution.

BRANDING

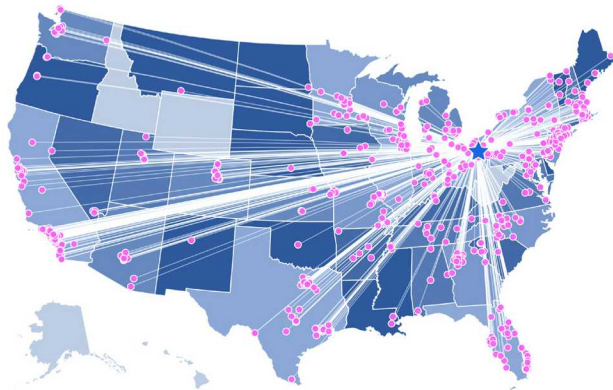

Brand and licensing teams know that brand integrity is maintained and approvals are easy, automated, and tracked.
