Cornerstone Datasheet

Hire and retain the best talent

Tight labor markets make it challenging for organizations around the world to find and keep top talent. But the right talent management software can help your organization be more than just competitive. Your organization can find the best people, match them to their perfect role, and set them up for success with personalized onboarding. With Cornerstone Recruiting, you'll have the tools you need to attract the best-fit candidates, uncover hidden talent, and save time and effort.

Attract the best-fit candidates

Create a seamless candidate experience that top talent will love. From branded career pages to customized onboarding flows, set your organization apart with personalized journeys for each candidate.

Streamline recruiting processes

Automate tasks and remove bottlenecks with a single page to manage your candidates across all requisitions. You can also quickly get feedback from the team to make smarter, more collaborative hiring decisions. All of these features help your recruiters effectively fill roles today and build a strong pipeline for tomorrow.

What recruiters love about Cornerstone Recruiting

“Managing candidates and reqs from one page in a simple and fast recruiter experience.”

“Linking data and reports from recruiting to onboarding to learning and performance.”

“Easily identifying internal candidates that fit skill requirements.”

Uncover hidden talent

Identify existing talent at your organization to fill open roles. Your employees can see the necessary skills for a job and receive learning recommendations that prepare them to take on a new challenge. You'll help your employees develop their careers while reducing time-to-hire and increasing retention.

The most significant improvement was an increase in applications by 60% and a decrease in time to hire by 20%. The long-term impact is the improvement in relationships between our hiring managers and recruiters.

Our recruitment teams constantly tell me how we've made their lives easier with Cornerstone Recruiting. They efficiently build shortlists of qualified candidates and quickly get the best people hired and onboarded around the globe."
