

David H. Lord Cooperative Services Award NOMINATION CRITERIA

Purpose

To acknowledge and recognize a member who has made exceptional contributions to E&I over a comprehensive period of time through volunteerism in the area of Cooperative Purchasing.

Nomination Criteria

E&I seeks annual nominations for this award from the higher education procurement community. The nominee shall be recognized for exceptional cooperative purchasing contributions throughout a lengthy calling of volunteerism. The individual shall be one who has demonstrated continued loyalty, dedication and contributed continued and/or extraordinary service to the procurement profession through E&I.

Criteria

- The member's contributions must have been accomplished for and directed toward E&I activities.
- The result or effect of the member's contributions must be pervasive and demonstrably beneficial to the aims and goals of E&I.
- The member's contributions are the result of resolved or persistent personal endeavor.
- The Nominee shall have clearly demonstrated a predominant personal effort without which the contributions would not have been made.

NOTE: The Nominee may be contacted to verify and add data to the recommendation received.

Eligibility

A nominee must be, or have been, an active employee of a current member institution of E&I Cooperative Services and not a current member of the Cooperative's Board of Directors or Awards Committee.
