E&I ANNOUNCES SEVERAL ADDITIONS TO FOOD SERVICES PORTFOLIO

JERICHO, N.Y. – E&I Cooperative members can now take advantage of new competitively awarded contracts with Canteen, Chartwells, and Levy Restaurants. Each of these companies is a division of Compass Group – the world’s largest foodservice company.

Canteen contract offers self-checkout micro-market solutions

With over 200 locations in 48 states, Canteen provides snacks, drinks, fresh food, and healthy vending options utilizing innovative solutions and state-of-the-art technology. The company’s Avenue C and Smart Market solutions provide alternative vending options that surpass all client expectations. Canteen’s refreshment services portfolio includes coffee service, water filtration systems, coffee machines and equipment.

Chartwells contract offers foodservice management, hospitality and guest services

Chartwells has partnered with more than 280 academic institutions across the United States to deliver foodservice management, hospitality and award-winning guest services. Chartwells’ dining programs serve as centers of campus academic life and create social spaces for all campus constituents.

Member benefits include nutritious and delicious cuisine selections, Generation Z-focused marketing engagement, and an emphasis on wellness and sustainability.

Levy contract offers solutions for athletic facilities

Levy is the leading provider of concessions and premium area catering services for professional and collegiate stadiums, arenas and ballparks. From the Super Bowl to the Kentucky Derby, and every major league championship game in between, Levy has pioneered the idea of premium dining at over 100 incredible locations. Highlights of the E&I Levy contract include concession services, alcoholic beverage services, and suites and catering services.
