Scheduling, budgeting, registering, and buying processes for areas of educational spend are often decentralized and unmanaged, leading to wasted time and overspending. And it's costing you. HPC's Education Concierge can provide your organization with a personalized online portal where employees and department managers can enter new expenses, track payment status, view program savings, receive reminders, and so much more. HPC also offers a dedicated program manager from our team who will oversee every educational expense transaction and drive savings.
