Comprehensive Learning Integrity Platform

Proctorio is a comprehensive learning integrity platform that provides automated and live remote exam proctoring, originality verification, ID verification, content protection, live pop-in, professional review, bring your own proctor, and reporting services to 950+ educational institutions worldwide, with more than 1.9 million active weekly users.

Proctorio’s scalable, cost-effective suite of lock down, recording, verification, and behavior settings validates student identities, authenticates originality, and ensures the integrity of your online exams. The system does not require personally identifiable information, and all data is protected using Zero-Knowledge encryption, which ensures that only authorized personnel at your institution can access unencrypted student data. Proctorio works seamlessly with your institution’s existing learning management system (LMS), making system integration quick and easy.
