Steelcase is focused on helping schools, colleges and universities create the most effective, rewarding and inspiring learning environments to meet the evolving needs of students and educators.

Learning solutions driven by research

Steelcase has been working with educators and designers to rethink classrooms, libraries, common areas and other in-between spaces to incorporate user-friendly technology, flexible furniture and other tools to support active learning. The company also offers professional development and training programs to foster learning and continuing education for instructors.

More member benefits include:

Turnkey Installation – Makes things much easier on you - available through a nationwide dealer network of registered agreement dealers and their professional dealer consultants.
