KEY FEATURES

Automated scanning and supplier matching

Our proprietary process quickly scans your data and automatically matches it with the most up-to-date diversity data.

Up-to-date information

Data is regularly pulled from trusted sources and monitored for accuracy over time. You can set up notifications, so you know when supplier certifications have lapsed.

Automatic regular updates

With our data enrichment tools, you get instant updates on all your suppliers from the Supplier.io portal.

Quality assurance testing

We put our data through a rigorous matching and QA review process, using advanced technological and manual review so you can always be sure your data is the most accurate.

Alerts for certification lapses

Ongoing alerts tell you which suppliers will expire in the upcoming month and lets you know when suppliers do not renew their certifications.

Customers report that we have found up to 20% more diverse suppliers in their data than other solutions
