

truly renewable seating & savings

Chances are your lounge furniture has seen better days. Even the most durable furniture will start to show wear and tear after a certain amount of time. It can be expensive to repair the damage, and even more costly to replace it.

With E&I's Transformations Furniture contract, you can change all that.

Transformations renewable upholstered lounge furniture is unrivaled in the marketplace. This means you can replace the furniture fabric and components on-site and in minutes.

The best part is, you don't need any special tools or training. Transformations has developed and patented a unique re-upholstery and assembly method to make it extremely easy for you.
