

WE GET NAVIGATING THE CARES ACT.

UNDERSTANDING THE CARES ACT IN HIGHER EDUCATION

The CARES Act allocates $14.2 billion to institutions of higher education. The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund provides funding institutions can use to support students and directly impact instructional needs. Join Dr. Curtiss Strietelmeier as he reviews both the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund and the Governor's Emergency Education Relief Fund. This session will help clarify the process for applying and receiving these funds and give attendees a deeper understanding of how the CARES Act funding can be used to best support their institutional needs.

Available times

Thursday, May 7th at 1:00 pm CST: Click to RSVP

Tuesday, May 12th at 2:00 pm CST: Click to RSVP

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. Curtiss Strietelmeier serves as an Education Strategist for CDW-G, with previous experience as a district superintendent, technology director and an adjunct professor of educational technology graduate coursework.

